

Didn't we have this same stupid debate when satellite TV came out. Please quit over regulating everything in this country. If business can't compete then they should go out of business, not be propped up by the government.